WRESTLING

The Outlook

The makings of an outstanding team are there for Northern Iowa but the schedule could get in the way.

The Panthers have solid, proven performers back at five positions, a returning national champion in heavy-weight Kent Osboe (who returned in the best condition ever at a slim svelte 235 pounds on his 6-5 frame) and the best quality depth in years.

And, if coach Chuck Patten is smiling it's not over the schedule, which he considers the finest in many a UNI moon, but the fact there are only TWO seniors on the squad . . . Osboe and Guyer.

The strong spots, to start off, are at 130, 137, 160, 167 and heavyweight. The lighter classes remain a question mark until proven with great promise at 152 and 177.

Now, the schedule. UNI has 24 duals slated, but only five home dates and that includes the UNI Invitational. There are two and three day tests (six matches in one three day venture into North Dakota and Minnesota) and the likes of Michigan State, Minnesota, Michigan, Arizona State, Georgia Tech, Wisconsin and Mankato State on the docket along with NCC power South Dakota State. And they take on the 24 opponents in a two month period.

Why? Patten says, "We need to improve our competition to improve as wrestlers and prospective coaches. It may not mean we'll match last year's record number of wins (17), but we'll be more aggressive."

The prospects? UNI will likely be favored to win its third straight NCC title, should be better prepared for a showing in the national tournaments with Osboe, Guyer and Reiland the best pre-season bets for national honors.

A possible key? "This team is coming back with the finest attitude I've ever seen," said Patten. "And I rate Osboe and Guyer as one of the top 10 in the nation in their respective weights."

Head Coach Chuck Patten

Native of Waterloo, Iowa . . . graduated from East High, wrestled at UNI, graduating in 1961 . . . M. A. degree from Oregon . . . coached at Exeter, California, and Reedsport, Oregon, before taking over as coach in 1964-65 season. . . . Has cumulative record of 35-24-1 in four seasons and has produced two national champions (Don Parker in 1966 and 1967, Kent Osboe in 1968) . . . Married and has one daughter.

The Returnees

KENT OSBOE    Heavyweight    Senior    Ft. Dodge, Ia

1967 Record: 10-4-0    5 pins    Conference Champ

1968 Record: 28-2-0    15 pins    Conference/National Champ

Osboe became the 25th national champion in wrestling at UNI but the first to win at heavyweight when he breezed through the NCAA College Division tourney. Only losses on year were to Jeff Smith, Michigan State; and Fred Andree, MIT. Outstanding speed for big man. (6-5, 235). Letterman.

Jim Guyer

Marv Reiland

Skip Bellock

JIM GUYER 160 Senior West Union, Iowa
 1967 Record: 9-4-1 2 pins
 1968 Record: 20-3-1 3 pins Conference Champ

Guyer is one of UNI's best technical wrestlers, good balance, few mistakes. Beat national champ Larry Amundnos, Mankato St., 6-3 in dual. Losses to Rod Ott, Michigan State (3-2), Russ Sill, Iowa (4-0), Bruce Turner, SUSNY, (5-4). Guyer and Osboe lone seniors on mat squad. Letterman.

MARV REILAND 137 Junior Eagle Grove, Iowa
 1968 Record: 21-1-2 3 pins Conference Champ

Reiland was unbeaten during regular season as sophomore before being upset in first round of national meet. Unheralded going into season, he progressed rapidly. Has great quickness and desire. Tough man to ride. Letterman.

SKIP BELLOCK 167 Junior Wheaton, Illinois
 1968 Record: 13-5-1 0 pins

Bellock, one of the most exciting wrestlers on squad, is a takedown artist, getting as many as 10 in one match. Wrestled at 177 most of 1968, 10 pounds over natural weight. Has blazing speed, but needs to ride opponent. Starting defensive tackle in football (likely the smallest in the country). Letterman.

DAN MASHEK 177-191 Junior Waterloo (West) Iowa
 1968 Record: 6-3-0 3 pins

Mashek has solid wrestling background out of Waterloo West. Used mainly at 191 pounds in 1968, he could be great help to team if he can get to 177 where he should develop into big winner.

BRAD STOLZ 145 Junior New Hampton, Iowa
 1968 Record: 4-10-2 1 pin

Stolz is another who wrestled out of his natural weight class, going at 152 and 160 last year. Will be likely replacement for three-time NCC champion Jerry Bond at 145 where he shows more natural style and aggressiveness.

The Outlook

On any given year the fact that the coach has four starters and nine lettermen from a team that missed the conference title by a single game would add up to title dreams.

UNI basketball coach Zeke Hogeland is not casting those dreams off but there remains one hard fact—three other teams are returning just as much firepower as the Panthers.

Hogeland did a remarkable job in his first year, posting a 15-7 record with a sophomore dominated team that had but two seniors and a brand new offensive system.

He starts this year with a veteran team that knows that system. It looks like this:

The Minuses: No one loses a Jerry Waugh (single season and single game record holder) without missing him, but Hogeland sees this as a plus in one way: "We looked too much to Waugh in the crisis last year. We'll be more of a five-man unit this year. I'll take a different hero every night."

The pluses: The four starters—two-time all-NCC center Ken Huelman (6-8); forwards Skip Anderson (6-5) and John Martin (6-6) and guard Darrell Jesse (5-11). Rod Larson (6-6) is the most improved player on hand and is likely replacement for Waugh. Larry Clausen (5-11) could put two-year starter Jesse on the bench. Solid reserves in Larry Lust (6-2), Bill Van Zante (6-4). Brightest sophomores are Duane Jensen (6-2) and Pete Wessels (6-0), both guards.

The Key: Huelman could be the key. He's within range of the all-time scoring record of 1,239 (he's got 761). A great year by Huelman could make this a championship team. The rebounding will be stronger with Larson on the court, the speed better with Clausen on hand.

The Race: Defending champion South Dakota State, UNI, North Dakota U., South Dakota U. all tough, Augustana the best bet as a sleeper.

The Returnees

KEN HUELMAN	Center	6-8	Senior	Schaller, Iowa
	FG-FGA	FT-FTA	Reb.	TP Ave.
1967:	150-303	92-190	281	392 17.8
1968:	139-280	91-147	261	369 16.7

Huelman, with 761 points in the books, needs 478 to tie Pete Spoden's career record of 1,239 points. A two-time all-conference performer and the team's top rebounder for the past two years. Good outside shooter for big man. Top shot putter in track. Letterman. (HILL-man)

DARRELL JESSE	Guard	5-11	Senior	Jesup, Iowa
1967:	68-140	38-55	43	174 7.9
1968:	72-190	47-59	59	191 8.6

Jesse is a two-year starter at guard but now in a real battle for the starting spot with Clausen. Makes few mistakes but rated conservative. Good floor general. Has amazing spring for small man and tops at free throw shooting. Letterman.

LARRY CLAUSEN	Guard	5-11	Senior	Cedar Rapids, Ia.
1967:	13-30	12-21	32	38 3.8
1968:	34-73	37-56	25	105 5.5

Clausen has rarely started, but developed into top reserve last year both at wing and guard. Now in battle with Jesse for outside spot. Good driver with excellent speed and daring. Always a crowd favorite. Only southpaw on team, it makes him effective at wing. Letterman.

BILL VAN ZANTE	Forward	6-4	Senior	Pella, Iowa
1967:	45-113	25-34	62	115 5.7
1968:	37-100	36-55	64	110 5.0

Van Zante earned occasional starting assignments last year with his aggressive play. Elbow injury slowed him early. Developed confidence later in season, especially on boards. Letterman. (VAN ZAN tee)

LARRY LUST	Forward	6-2	Senior	Newton, Iowa
1967:	29-80	31-40	41	89 4.6
1968:	13-26	5-12	17	31 1.7

Lust was used in reserve role at wing last year behind Jerry Waugh. Saw limited action. Should see more duty this season as one of team's top outside shooters and drivers. Letterman.

Ken Huelman

Darrell Jesse

Larry Clausen

JOHN MARTIN      6-6      Junior      Cedar Falls, Iowa
 1968:              81-187      46-68      117      208      9.4

Martin was most pleasant surprise of a talented sophomore group last year. Started most of the way and handled himself well both underneath and at the wing. He's a top shooter from outside and has good moves in close. Needs to improve on defense. A top hustler. Letterman.

SKIP ANDERSON      6-5      Junior      Cedar Falls, Iowa
 1968:              80-175      33-55      102      193      8.7

Anderson made himself the top defensive player on the team a year ago with hustle and hard work. Should show signs of greatness on offense this year. Most aggressive of all the Panthers, he can be great threat in close with speed and agility. Letterman.

ROD LARSON      6-5      Junior      Roland, Iowa
 1968:              39-94      9-20      89      87      3.9

No one has looked better in early drills than Larson, a strong aggressive rebounder. Confidence has made him one of the leading threats on offense. Has great moves inside and can drive with ball. Most improved player, in all respects, on team. A crowd favorite with flamboyant style. Letterman.

The Outlook

A solid veteran indoor track team, losing only three men from last year's championship team, will be gunning for a third straight NCC indoor title and it could be the best team in UNI history.

Coach Jack Jennett has only two problems.

First, he must get along without eight men, active in other winter sports, for a major portion of the campaign and, secondly, he must find a replacement for the talented Mark Sanborn.

"The eight men in other sports robs us of depth for they all fall into three events—pole vault, high jump and shot put," said Jennett. "Also, I don't think any one man can replace Sanborn. It'll take two or three to do what he did for us."

There is no doubt who the super star on this year's team is. Its Larry McCready, the all-time scoring champ in Panther land, an All-American hurdler last year, the most versatile performer in UNI history.

UNI is again loaded in the hurdles with eight men on hand, have an outstanding long and triple jumper in Craig Fay, stronger in the sprints, the pole vault, high jump, and shot put. The weakest spot . . . the distance where veterans Tom Denney and Wayne Carpenter hold the best chance for points. Larry Daniels gives UNI good strength in the 440-600 and 880 events with help from a former Waterloo West teammate Dan Gates in the 440.

Despite the huge returning force Jennett may have the hottest freshman group he's recruited with at least eight of them considered sure bets for starting roles.

The Panthers have won the last two indoor and outdoor NCC titles and will likely be favored to repeat.

The Outlook

Depth, a rare commodity for the first two years in UNI swimming, is showing its face, much to the delight of coach Glen Henry.

"That first year we couldn't even put a man in the water in a couple of events and even last year we threw in some just to have a second man in the race," he said. "Now, we have a fight for the chance to swim. We were better the first day of practice than we were at the end of last year."

UNI's power lies in the middle free style events where 1967-68 point leader Eric Hyde may have trouble holding on to his number one status. Newcomer Brian Griffith is the challenger in both the 100 and 200 events. They also form a strong nucleus in the relays.

The backstroke event is better, the breaststroke improved and there is a brand new look in the butterfly. UNI finally has one . . . in fact . . . two, in Les Mangold and Rick Shaver, Mangold finished sixth in the state prep meet last year.

Henry is three strong in the individual medley, headed by freshman Jim Moneypenny and veteran Tom Loeck with Rolland Guild a strong threat to take one spot.

UNI needs help in three areas . . . the freestyle sprint and distance . . . and diving, though all will be improved over last year.

Henry is happy with the progress. "There is a different attitude on this squad. They want to do something with their team. If they keep that attitude we could be tough."

Head Coach Glen Henry

Graduate of Chadron (Nebr.) State, Henry is in third year at UNI as head swimming and assistant football coach. . . . Handles freshman gridders in fall. . . Started swimming program at UNI. . . Won first unofficial NCC swim meet. . . Also started tank sport at Chadron State. . . Married and has two daughters and a son.

The Outlook

There is a new look in UNI gymnastics. No longer does Garf Stych fight to put a man in an event. The fight, now, is over a starting position, giving the Panthers their brightest prospects in the short three-year history of the sport.

A 2-7 team in 1967-68, the Panthers are looking for better things this time around.

The biggest improvement should be in the side horse, a weak spot the first two years. Newcomer Dennis Wiedenman and veteran Clyde Hovick should be the point leaders. The parallel bars are improved with Hovick and newcomer Barry Sweet the top men.

Five lettermen returned (more than the total squad two years ago) with captain Keith Hicklin leading the way. Hicklin, one of the top vaulters in the midwest, will again handle all-around duties. He's joined by Hovick, Steve Speth, Steve Rutz and Steve Lamansky.

Newcomers counted on for big things are Sweet, Wiedenman and Jeff Connor.

The Panthers may be in the process of turning the corner in gymnastics. Stych thinks so. "Its a big step for us when we have a battle for starting positions. This competition can only make us tougher."

THE ALL-AMERICANS

Kent Osboe

KENT OSBOE—Northern Iowa has had 25 national wrestling champions over the years, but there has been only one Kent Osboe, the first Panther heavyweight to win a NCAA national crown. A year ago Kent came back at 270-pounds, melted down to 235 and went to work, winning his title in the College Division nationals. This year he came back at 235 ready to defend that crown. He was 28-2-0 last year with 15 pins. His career record stands at 38-6-0 to go with two NCC heavyweight titles.

Larry McCready

LARRY McCREADY— All-America track men at UNI have been few and far between. So few, in fact, that Larry McCready is only the second in history. He earned that title with a second place finish in the NCAA College Division nationals in the 120-yard high hurdles. He's done the distance in :13.9, but it's only one of many events for him. He stars in both hurdles, the high jump, long jump and relays, anchoring the 440 and 880 events. He's the number one scorer of all-time at UNI with his senior year left to pad that brilliant record.
